“ Mary Ann and I became close friends when we worked together for the Navy in Trenton (Ewing Township) and also with the FAA at the Trenton Airport. On Saturdays I would travel from my home in Phillipsburg, NJ, and we would go out to lunch sometimes taking our grandchildren with us. We would exchange gifts on our birthdays and at Christmas. We were like sisters, one I didn't have. After we both retired, we kept in touch by phone and visiting with each other. As we got older, it was mainly by phone. I shall miss my dear friend so much may God Bless YouMy Friend. Rest in Peace and now you will know no more pain.
